Student Chapter on 14th March 2024 at the Mangalore Institute of Technology & Engineering. The event marked a significant milestone in fostering a culture of excellence in human resource management among students.

The ceremony aimed to establish a platform that nurtures the passion and skills of students interested in human resource management. By affiliating with NIPM, the renowned authority in the field, the Student Chapter aspires to provide students with invaluable opportunities for learning, networking, and professional development.

The programme was inaugurated by Chief Guest, Mr. P Suresh, Former HR Head, Mangalore Chemicals & Fertilizers Ltd, Mangalore. In his inaugural address, Mr. Suresh imparted invaluable wisdom to the students, emphasizing the significance of interview preparation and the indispensable role of confidence in decision-making. He highlighted the importance of equipping oneself with the requisite skills and mind set to excel in interviews, underlining confidence as a key factor in navigating the challenges of the selection process. The event kicked off with a warm welcome extended to all attendees, setting the stage for an engaging and insightful discourse on grooming future leaders in human resource management.
